Sorting/setting out recyclables and garbage

Information on waste paper and cloth

Komaki's Environmental Character "Ecorin"

Waste paper

※Cancelled in case of rain

Includes

Newspapers, magazines, cardboard, paper packed beverages, mixed paper

■ The following are considered mixed paper (recyclables):

Candy boxes, posters, paper bags, notepad paper, chopstick sleeves, copy paper (excluding thermosensitive paper), postcards, toilet paper cores, wrapping paper, inserts for clothing such as dress shirts, envelopes (no address stickers, remove cellophane from windowed envelopes)

Disposing of newspapers, magazines, cardboard boxes, and crumpled paper

- ① Bind each group of items with string vertically in both directions
- ② Take the garbage to the recyclable collection site

※These items are not accepted at all collection sites.

Dispose of mixed paper in a paper bag.
※If you do not have a paper bag you may use a recyclables bag (green bag).

Disposing of paper cartons

① Rinse off

② Dry and cut to flatten

③ Take the garbage to the recyclable collection site

Non-recyclable papers

Caution

The following are considered burnable garbage: Paper that has been treated with wax (including envelopes with attached adhesives, plastic-coated paper, or paper drinking burnable garbage cups), aluminum-coated paper, photographs, thermal paper, carbon paper, and the like

Waste cloth

※Cancelled in case of rain

Includes

Generally, "waste cloth" is old clothing. Ensure the cloth is washed before being put out.
(There is no need to remove buttons, etc.)

■ Examples of old cloth (a typical example. Certain materials may not be eligible for recycling.)

T-shirts, dress shirts, pants, sweaters, skirts, sheets, underwear (articles without sanitary issues), towels, blankets, handkerchiefs, sweat suits

※Please do not dispose of wet, torn, or extremely dirty items or items with a strong odor as waste cloth.

Disposal procedure

- ① Wash the items
- ② Place them in recyclable trash bags
- ③ Take the garbage to the recyclable collection site

※These items are not accepted at all collection sites.

Place your bagged recyclables and garbage out at the collection point by 8:30 on the designated collection day.

Always dispose of recyclables and garbage in designated Komaki City garbage bags.

Pet poop problems!

We have heard from many people that they would like us to take action as there are problems with dog poop. Pet poop can be seen left on roads and at parks. Leaving it or dumping it is prohibited in the Komaki Comfortable and Clean Urban Planning Bylaw and violations may be punished. As a pet owner, please consider your manners and take responsibility to clean up after your pet. The Waste Management Section has signage available if you have a problem in your area.

A subsidy is available for adult rubella vaccination.

The subsidy is available until March 31, 2014.

In order to prevent further spread of rubella nationally and related congenital rubella syndrome a subsidy has been provided for adults to receive rubella vaccination.

1 Eligibility

For persons determined by a doctor to require the vaccine based on a low test result for resistance to rubella, on the day they receive the vaccination they are registered as residing in Komaki and meet one of the following criteria:

① Women planning to or desiring to get pregnant; or

② The husband of such a woman

(Includes men living together in a marital-like relationship that have not registered their marriage).

③ Husbands of pregnant women

(Includes men living together in a marital-like relationship that have not registered their marriage).

※Pregnant women are unable to receive the vaccine.

2 Amount of subsidy

Vaccination at a local medical facility Whole cost covered

Please contact the Health Center if you would prefer a vaccination out of the City.

※The cost of the resistance test is not covered (this test is necessary to receive the subsidy for the rubella vaccination)
