SCHOOL ADMISSION GUIDE FOR FOREIGN CHILDREN

Admission Procedures to Japanese Schools

About Elementary and Junior High Schools (shougako, chugako).

Japanese children must attend compulsory education for 6 years of elementary school (from 6 ~12 years old) and 3 years of junior high school (from 12 ~15 years old).

Foreign children also can attend elementary or junior high school if desired.

Education is very important matter for the future of the children.

Don't you want your child (children) study at the Japanese school and learn customs along with Japanese children?

■ About the academic year in Japan

The academic year in Japan, starts April 1st and ends March 31st.

The grade is determined by the age of the children.

Children who were born between April 2nd and April 1st of the next year, will belong to the same grade.

Children will be admitted in the grade which correspond to their age.
