Unable to pay National Pension Premiums? Please consult with us!

If your household has low income, you may apply to have your national health insurance premiums lowered. (This is called an application for exemption.) Persons under 50 years of age can apply based on a review of their household income with themselves and their spouse. To request relief, apply at the Citizen Inquiry Division.

You can apply for a period up to 25 months before the time of application.

Persons that have applied in the past and received an exemption (reduced or no fee) or deferment (payment period delay) must apply for an update each year from July.

The laws of Japan specify that foreign nationals living in Japan (aged 20 to 59) must enroll in national pension and pay the premiums. There are three kinds of national pension.

Basic pension for the elderly

People that have paid national pension premiums for at least 10 years (or had approved exemptions) can apply to receive benefits from 65 years old.

Basic disability
pension

During enrollment in national pension, persons determined to have a level 1 or 2 disability under the National Pension Act due to sickness or injury can receive benefits upon approval of their application.

Basic survivor
pension

Survivors (parent of children under 18 or children under 18) of persons that die during enrollment in national pension can receive benefits upon approval of their application.

* Lump sum withdrawal...Foreign nationals that have paid 6 months or more worth of national pension premiums may apply for a lump sum withdrawal within two years of leaving Japan. Please come to city hall before leaving Japan.
